The American Miniature Schnauzer Club Medallion

Margaret W. Pratt

The idea of having an American Miniature Schnauzer Club (AMSC) Medallion originated in the 1960s during the presidency of Walter House (Crown-Post Kennel). The idea was approved by the Board and a Special Committee was set up to work with an artist to design the medallion. Those involved wanted a symbol for the AMSC which was more than elegant and eye-catching than the black and silver diamond with an MS face and the block letters which had been used for club stationery for a number of years. It was also during Walter's presidency that the club began the preparation of various of our publications (some pretty much as they were developed at that time). We wanted them to be copyrighted and marked with a symbol identifying them as "official" publications of the AMSC.

As with many ideas initiated within the AMSC, it was not welcomed by all club members. The concept of a round base with a raised Miniature Schnauzer head in profile and the club name - all in brass - was strongly opposed by a few and there was opposition by them to use club funds for the development of the medallion model and its use for various purposes. These purposes include:

- ◆ The AMSC Best of Breed Medal lions awarded at AMSC Specialty Shows
- ◆ AMSC Stationery

MEDALLION MODEL

- ◆ AMSC Membership pins
- ◆ Identification for AMSC Publications

To set aside as much negative reaction as possible, Walter asked the Board members who had approved and supported the project to put up their own money to pay for the development of the "model" of the medallion. This was not greeted with universal enthusiasm, but we did contribute the money to pay for the design and the prototype of the medallion which you see here. The club paid for the use of the model to generate the various versions needed for the uses cited above.

As the club has noted through the years, many of our members have not appreciated the importance and value of historical documents, pictures, and other items. And to be truthful, many members did not have the space to use to house items such as the medallion model.

Nonetheless, through several moves in New Jersey and Virginia, Walter provided a safe home for the Medallion model. He hung it on the wall and would point it out with pride to those of us who would find it of interest.

A short time ago, I mentioned to him (and he agreed) that it was time to plan for the medallion model to return to the club. This action has been completed.

It is not helpful to try to spell out details of the struggle to develop the medallion model - who was for and who was against it, what it cost and who paid. It is useful, however, for current members to understand that some people spent a lot of time and effort (and even some of their own money) so that we have the medallion design which defines today the official status of various AMSC items.

We should have a report from the AKCCHF AMSC Donor advised account for Miniature Schnauzers before the Spring board meeting. My records show we should have at least $66,000 but there are donations and interest that I don't have yet.

Black Ribbons

Ch Dynasty's Calliope

Today, my daughter and I had the sad task of sending Calli to the Rainbow Bridge. Calli was 14 yrs old on Nov 20th and lived with my daughter, Carol... Her dam, Foxfires's Midnight Diamond crossed to the Bridge in August and her littermate Max crossed in June. I am sure Calli and all of her littermates are enjoying a family reunion, free of pain, with my hubby, Duncan passing out all the dog treats forbidden here on earth.

Mildred Shultz

INT/Mex/AM, Ch Ruedesheim's Front Page

3/6/89-1/21/04

Page was my first champion, bought from Anne Lockney as a pup.

She became a champion at just 12 MOS old and the next weekend beat "Rep" and got a group 1. She was the dam of 5 Champions and the grand dam of over a dozen champions and numerous great grand and great, great champions. She was my brood bitch and if not for Page, Dynasty Miniature Schnauzers would be unknown.

Page, you have crossed the Rainbow Bridge, but your other Master, Duncan, is awaiting for you to sit on his lap.

I miss you ...Millie Shultz

Ch Yasmar's Tiffany Starfire

August 2, 1989 — December 1, 2003

Tiffany was our foundation bitch for Sunfire Miniature Schnauzers. She was a Top Producer with a Top Producing son. Tiffany was the only bitch in the nation to be in the Top Twenty Miniature Schnauzers for four years in a row (SS System). At only 12 7/8" tall she won over 65 BOB's in her limited career shown only in a stripped coat. She was an incredible showdog!!!

Tiffany was a tomboy and loved to run and play. As much as she enjoyed the ring her heart was at home with my Mother. Now they are together. We miss you Tiffany and cherish all the memories you gave us.

And my heart is breaking as I type through the first of many many tears to fall. He has been my best buddy for the past twelve years. Thank you Carole Weinberger and Wade Bogart for allowing me to have him when he was about a year old. He was always the perfect gentleman and in my opinion the perfect dog. Bojangles dogs would not look and move the way they do without him. He will live on in all of my dogs and in my heart forever. MyraSnyder

AMSC OFFERS VERSATILTY AWARDS

Great News! In this issue of AMSCOPE you will find an Application Form for the first ever Versatility Award offered by the AMSC.

This award is intended to recognize and honor the achievements of purebred Miniature Schnauzers and their owners in training and competition. It will highlight those within our breed who exemplify the sport of dogs and will showcase the true versatility of our wonderful breed.

Two awards are offered; a Versatility Award (VA) and a Versatility Excellent Award (VAX).

All AKC titles offered for Miniature Schnauzers will be recognized toward achievement of this award. The award will be available to AMSC members only, and the owner must be a member during the period in which at least one of the titles has been earned. The Miniature Schnauzer must be AKC registered and only Miniature Schnauzers that are of the recognized colors will be eligible. Owners will be responsible for submitting an application to the AMSC when their dog completes the requirements.

Recipients of these awards will be published periodically in AMSCOPE and announced at the annual meeting during the Montgomery County weekend.

The Versatility Award Form is also available at the AMSC-L site on the Yahoo Groups web site - www.yahogroups.com <<http://www.yahogroups.com>>. Any questions will be answered by emailing Lynn Baitinger at OTCHMX@att.net <<mailto:otchmx@att.net>> or by calling her at 248.656.9845.

The American Miniature Schnauzer Club is very pleased to offer these awards to its members.

Versatility Award Committee

Direct From the AKC.....

The Companion Events Department of the American Kennel Club is pleased to inform you that Sassy's Laradan Curtain Call VCD 2 AX AXJ, owned by Sharon Bloss, Shirley Shepard and Katie Shepard, is the first Miniature Schnauzer to achieve the Versatile Companion Dog 2 title. This achievement proves versatility on the dog's part and dedication on the owner's part, in developing a team worth of this prestigious title.

DOGHERO.COM (home of Canine Courage: The Heroism of Dogs) announces the first annual dog story contest

Get out your pen and tell us your favorite dog story!

To celebrate dog stories and the human-dog bond, Doghero.com is holding its First Annual Dog Story Contest. The contest is for non-fiction stories of dog heroes, favorite dogs, and interesting or funny dog stories. The winner will receive $100 and a Canine Courage T-Shirt, second place will receive $50 and a Canine Courage T-Shirt, and third place will receive $25 and a flying disk. Fourth and fifth places will receive a flying disk. Winning stories will be posted on doghero.com and all stories will also be considered for publication in an anthology of dog stories.

Entry deadline is June 1, 2004. Visit Doghero.com for contest details. Doghero.com features Canine Courage: The Heroism of Dogs, gifts including Canine Courage T-shirts, mouse pads and more, plus literature and articles about dogs

"Canine Courage includes dozens of these stories and retells them in a straightforward, entertaining, and refreshingly un sentimental manner.... Canine Courage would be an enjoyable read simply for the retelling of the stories of dog heroics. Add to that the author's examination of why dogs act heroically and it becomes a thought-provoking journey. - "Paws in Review" DogWorld, August 2003, Janine Adams

"I chuckled, I laughed out loud, I marveled, and I shed a few tears reading this book."
— Marilyn Runyan, Ruff Notes
